Re: International Longshoremen's Association Local
1291 (Greenwich Terminals LLC and PMTA)
Case 04-CB-380866

Dear [REDACTED]:

We have carefully investigated and considered your charge that International Longshoremen's Association Local 1291 has violated the National Labor Relations Act.

Decision to Dismiss: In view of your lack of cooperation in investigating this case, I have determined that further proceedings are not warranted at this time and I am dismissing your charge.

The above-captioned charges were filed on February 11, 2026 without any supporting evidence. On February 11, 2026, the Regional Office sent you a letter requesting that you submit supporting evidence no later than close of business on February 25, 2026. The letter provided a warning that the charge would be dismissed for lack of cooperation if the supporting evidence was not submitted by the deadline. On February 27, 2026, the assigned Board Agent notified you via email that he would recommend dismissal based on your lack of cooperation on March 2, 2026. As you have not responded and have failed to submit any supporting evidence. I am refusing to issue Complaint in this matter and dismissing the charge.

If you wish to refile this charge later when you can cooperate in the investigation, you may do so. However, your attention is directed to Section 10(b) of the Act which provides that a charge must be filed with the NLRB and served on the charged party within six months of the conduct alleged to be unlawful.

Charging Party's Right to Appeal: The Charging Party may appeal my decision to the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board, through the Office of Appeals.

Means of Filing: You must file your appeal electronically or provide a written statement explaining why electronic submission is not possible or feasible. Written instructions for the NLRB's E-Filing system and the Terms and Conditions of the NLRB's E-Filing policy are available at www.nlr.gov. See User Guide. A video demonstration which provides step-by-step instructions and frequently asked questions are also available at www.nlr.gov. If you require additional assistance with E-Filing, please contact e-Filing@nlrb.gov.

You are encouraged to also submit a complete statement of the facts and reasons why you believe my decision was incorrect. If you cannot file electronically, please send the appeal and your written explanation of why you cannot file electronically to the General Counsel at the National Labor Relations Board, Attn: Office of Appeals, 1015 Half Street SE, Washington, DC 20570-0001. Unless filed electronically, a copy of the appeal should also be sent to me. The main telephone number for the Office of Appeals is (202)273-3760.

The appeal MAY NOT be filed by fax or email. The Office of Appeals will not process faxed or emailed appeals.

Appeal Due Date: The appeal is due on March 16, 2026. If the appeal is filed electronically, the transmission of the entire document through the Agency's website must be completed no later than 11:59 p.m. Eastern Time on the due date. If filing by mail or by delivery service an appeal will be found to be timely filed if it is postmarked or given to a delivery service no later than March 13, 2026. If an appeal is postmarked or given to a delivery service on the due date, it will be rejected as untimely. If hand delivered, an appeal must be received by the General Counsel in Washington D.C. by 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the appeal due date. If an appeal is not submitted in accordance with this paragraph, it will be rejected.

Extension of Time to File Appeal: The General Counsel may allow additional time to file the appeal if the Charging Party provides a good reason for doing so and the request for an extension of time is received on or before March 16, 2026. The request may be filed electronically through the E-File Documents link on our website www.nlr.gov, by fax to (202)273-4283, by mail, or by delivery service. The General Counsel will not consider any request for an extension of time to file an appeal received after March 16, 2026, even if it is postmarked or given to the delivery service before the due date. Unless filed electronically, a copy of the extension of time should also be sent to me.

Confidentiality: We will not honor requests to limit our use of appeal statements or evidence. Upon a request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) by a party during the processing of an appeal, the Agency's FOIA Branch discloses appeal statements, redacted for personal privacy, confidential source protection, or other applicable FOIA exemptions. In the event the appeal is sustained, any statement or material submitted may be introduced as evidence at a hearing before an administrative law judge. However, certain evidence produced at a hearing may be protected from public disclosure by demonstrated claims of confidentiality.

Very truly yours,

Kimberly Andrews
Regional Director
